

Joan

She lived a simple uncomplicated life
And was never materialistic.
She liked plain speaking without hurting feelings
And was interesting and easy to chat with.

Never complaining, happy and busy,
Her independence maintaining.
Warm and good natured with all whom she met.
Her positive thinking inspiring.

One of her sayings will be remembered,
“If you don’t use it, you lose it.”
It’s all a matter of how you view life.
A good path is found and you choose it!

Parting does hurt, but we won’t forget,
She lived life without any fuss.
Everyone leaves a part of themselves.
We thank her for all she left us!
